

Kennedy and Nehru Agree on Bomb Ban

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy and Indian Prime Minister Nehru have "agreed on the urgent need for a treaty banning nuclear tests with necessary provision for inspection and control."

The agreement was contained in a communique issued Thursday after Nehru completed four days of talks with the President. The Indian leader flies to New York today.

Nehru's acceptance of the U.S. position on the need for controls indicated some slight modification in the Indian position.

The Indian delegation at the United Nations held to the line that the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union should forego all testing, pending an agreement on an inspected test ban treaty.

At the same time, Nehru apparently has not accepted the U.S. claim that the resumption of underground testing by the United States—and perhaps of future atmospheric testing—is fully justified on the grounds of self-preservation. Nehru has said he is flatly opposed to any nuclear tests by anyone.

Kennedy pointed out that the Soviet Union had broken a previous, informal test ban and "reaffirmed the United States' unwillingness to accept a further uncontrolled test moratorium."

Earlier, at a National Press Club luncheon, the Indian leader called the Soviet resumption of nuclear testing "a very harmful, disastrous thing."

Nehru also said he thought "Russia today aims at and desires peace." And, he added, the downgrading of the late dictator Joseph Stalin "raises my hopes for world peace."

In the 700-word joint communique, Kennedy and Nehru called their more than 15 hours of talks since last Monday "highly useful, pleasant and rewarding."

A basis was laid for continuing close personal communications in the months ahead, the communique said.

The communique said Kennedy had assured Nehru "that every effort would be made to seek a solution of the Berlin problem by peaceful means, and underline the importance of the choices of the people directly concerned."

It said Nehru concurred with Kennedy "in the legitimate and necessary right of access to Berlin."

Settlement in Paternity Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A paternity suit against comedian Mort Sahl has been settled out of court. The case was removed from the Superior Court calendar Thursday.

Terms of the settlement were not announced.

Patricia Manley, 32, a widow, alleged in her suit that Sahl, 34, fathered her son Adam, 4 months, during a vacation trip she claimed she and Sahl made to Europe last fall. Sahl had denied paternity.

Sign This Petition If You Wish to Eliminate the County Supervisor

(First of a Series)

This week-end Hope Star will begin circulating a nominating petition to put a man on the County Board of Education, which office will be voted on in the school election December 5.

If you want to eliminate the obsolete and expensive office of County School Supervisor you will sign this petition promptly. The deadline for filing the petition is Wednesday, November 15 — 20 days before the date of the election.

Our first move in this matter was to retain James H. Pilkinton, former chancery judge, to look up the law and advise as to procedure. His legal report shows that to abolish the office of County School Supervisor it is necessary for the County Board of Education to so vote — which means you have got to elect to the County Board men who are so disposed.

The County Board is comprised of five members, one being elected each year for a five-year term. The member whose term is now expiring and who presumably will be a candidate for re-election is Milton Peebles, school superintendent at Saratoga, a good schoolman and a good friend of The Editor.

We sounded out Mr. Peebles over the telephone Tuesday night as to whether he would commit himself to vote to abolish the County Supervisor office, and he paid us a visit at The Star office Wednesday, at which time we went over the matter in detail. If The Editor had been able to get a decisive statement from Mr. Peebles we would have backed him — and there would have been no need to circulate a petition to nominate an opposing candidate. But Mr. Peebles refused to commit himself — and so the nominating petition for another man becomes necessary.

The story behind the County School Supervisor is simply that of an office which has outlived its time, with an ever-mounting cost in wasted public school funds.

When this Editor came to Hope in 1929 the county had a population of 32,000, of which Hope had 6,000 — leaving a rural population of 26,000. The county's population today is 19,000, of which Hope has 8,000 — leaving a rural population of only 11,000, little more than a third as large as three decades ago.

Originally Hempstead county had 25 school districts. Now there are only eight. The Arkansas total has shrunk from thousands to a mere 418 districts. Everywhere the duties of the County School Supervisor have vanished — but the office rolls merrily along with the highest budget in history.

The picture in Hempstead county is this: From one-half the state severance tax, the state apportionment, and the sale of poll taxes, the Common School Fund gets $16,680 annually. According to a State Department of Education analysis of the fiscal year 1960-61 the annual cost of the local Supervisor's office is $10,128, of which the state contributes $2,046 — leaving a net drain on the County Common School Fund of $8,082, or about half the fund.

The annual cost of supervisors state-wide is $624,162 — all paid for with money that otherwise would go to the public schools.

This is the story behind our nominating petition for the County Board of Education.

One copy will be at Hope Star office, others will be circulated.

Broiler Men Favor U. S. Controls

Farm broiler producers meeting Thursday night at Bodecaw voted unanimously in favor of federal government controls on production at the farm level. The producers favor controls similar to those practiced under the cotton program.

The meeting was held under the sponsorship of the Southwest Arkansas Poultry Producers' Assn., with about 50 producers present.

Another and larger meeting is planned for Monday Nov. 20 at 7 p. m. in Bodecaw, at which time a resolution setting forth the views of the growers in this area will be considered, according to T. J. Silvey, president of the local association. Also plans will be made at that time for a meeting to which Sen. John McClellan, Sen. J. W. Fulbright and Congressman Oren Harris will be invited.

All broiler producers in Southwest Arkansas are invited to attend these meetings, said Mr. Silvey.

Stalin's Body 'Embarrassment'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon claims Stalin's body was removed from its Kremlin crypt because "it was no longer convenient to the newer members of the Soviet elite to honor him."

"Even our own nation found it expedient to bestow honor and extravagant praise on Stalin during the war," Nixon told the Catholic Press Council of Southern California Thursday night.

Hunters Are Cautioned on Deer Season

As another deer season opens hunters are cautioned:

1. It is unlawful to shoot from any public road
2. It is unlawful to have loaded firearms in your car
3. Trespassing poses still another problem — many persons are in the fields picking cotton, and shooting close to them could endanger lives

Asks Recount of Vote at Stuttgart

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP)—A recount of ballots in Tuesday's mayoralty election was scheduled for today at the request of Melvin Hicks, who lost by seven votes.

Marion Hartz, secretary of the Arkansas County Election Board, said Hicks asked for the recount Thursday. John W. Bucken got 694 votes to Hicks' 687.

Hartz said Hicks did not allege any irregularities, but wanted the recount "because of possible human error" since the vote was so close.

Hartz said three men tied for an alderman's post in an election Tuesday at Almyra, near here, and a runoff would be necessary to decide the election. He said he did not know when the runoff would be scheduled.

Individual Lost If U. S. Owns Schools

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Federal control of education in the United States would lead directly to the destruction of the freedom and integrity of the individual, Sterling M. McMurrin, U.S. commissioner of education, said today.

But, he added, "the federal government must step in, where absolutely necessary, to provide the human and natural resources needed in the achievement of our national goals."

"I am completely committed to the tradition of local control of education," McMurrin said in an interview. "However, I do see the necessity of recognizing that the quality of education everywhere in the nation is the proper concern of everybody in the nation."

Discussing an address to be given later in the day to the annual meeting of the Council of Chief State School Officers, McMurrin said: "We have a national ideal that all citizens should have an opportunity to the best kind of education of which they are capable."

"This makes education, in one sense, the nation's business. If the ideal is not being properly recognized and implemented in one of the states, it is the concern of the people in all the states."

The council of Chief State School Officers is an organization of state superintendents and commissioners of education. These superintendents deal with a multitude of federal agencies and there are about 25 ways in which federal funds are channeled to the states for educational purposes.

"My office is willing to sit down with these superintendents and work out any problems they have regarding federal control," McMurrin said. "We are as anxious as they are to avoid it."

The state superintendents wind up their three-day meeting later today with a business session.

Spring Hill PTA Plans Game, Party

The Spring Hill PTA will sponsor a basketball game and lucky party in the gym at 7 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 11. It was announced today. Mothers will play one half of the game and fathers the other half.

The regular PTA meeting will be held Monday night, Nov. 13, with supper in the lunchroom before the meeting.

Veteran Day Program at Courthouse

The American Legion and Legion Auxiliary will hold a brief ceremony in front of the War Memorial at Hempstead county courthouse at 11 a. m. Saturday, honoring Veterans Day.

Miss Peggy Franks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Franks, will be crowned 1961 poppy queen. All post offices will be closed Saturday, and there will be no city or rural mail deliveries, in observance of Veterans Day.

Red Airlift Stirs Viet Nam to Plea

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—South Viet Nam has asked the International Control Commission again to do something about the Soviet airlift to Communist rebels in neighboring Laos.

The new protest was made after the government received advice that the airlift was landing in southern Laos where Vietnamese Communist forces are reported poised for a possible move across the border into South Viet Nam.

This country has repeatedly accused the commission—made up of India, Canada and Poland—of inaction in not moving to condemn the Soviet airlift. The Soviet planes fly from Communist North Viet Nam, which is also under the commission's supervision as part of the 1954 Geneva agreement.

The New York Times said today the U.S. Air Force has begun a huge supply and training program in Saigon to strengthen South Viet Nam's defenses against intensified Communist guerrilla operations.

A Saigon dispatch quoted an official source as saying the operation involves a movement of masses of American equipment, planes and personnel. Vietnamese pilots were reported given on-the-spot training in fighter and helicopter operations.

Whether the role of U.S. airmen already on hand or on the way may be broadened to include tactical missions was not disclosed. The full extent of U.S. participation in the South Viet Nam fighting, including the question of whether ground combat units should be sent in, awaits a decision by President Kennedy.

Mo. Pac. to Ask Train Curtailment

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Missouri Pacific Railroad wants to discontinue three passenger trains on its Memphis — Little Rock — Hot Springs line and shorten the run on a fourth train.

The railroad asked the state Commerce Commission Thursday for authority to discontinue the trains. The commission set a public hearing Dec. 11, and mailed notice of the request to cities and other parties concerned.

If the request is granted, only one round trip daily will be operated between Memphis and Hot Springs. The railroad contends that would be enough to take care of the passengers.

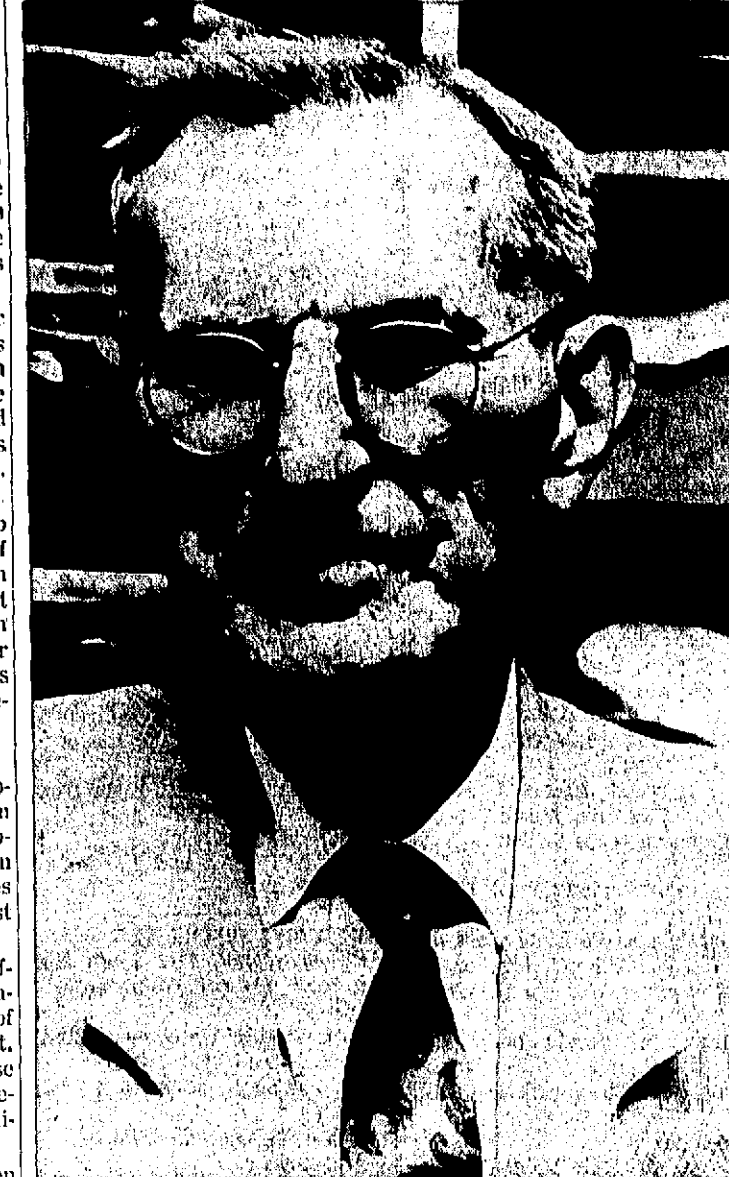

It cited heavy financial losses on the line.

The railroad wants to abandon No. 831 which leaves Little Rock at 1:30 a. m. and arrives in Hot Springs at 3 a. m.; No. 832 which leaves Hot Springs at 9:30 p. m. and arrives in Little Rock at 10:55 p. m. and No. 202 which leaves Little Rock at 2:40 a. m. and arrives in Memphis at 6 a. m.

MoPac asked to be allowed to discontinue the Memphis — Little Rock leg of No. 219, which leaves Memphis at 8 a. m. and arrives in Hot Springs at 12:45 p. m.

The Little Rock — Hot Springs segment would be operated.

Webb Laseter, Hempstead 'Mr. Republican,' 91, Dies

— Photographed by Hope Star last year on his 80th birthday. WEBB LASETER, SR., 91, HEMPSTEAD COUNTY'S "MR. Republican," died Thursday at the Hempstead County Memorial Hospital. Survivors include his wife, two sons, Webb, Jr. of Hope and Fred of Little Rock, three grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

A resident of Hope for 87 years, he was a veteran of the Spanish-American War, a member of the First Baptist Church, the Baptist Men's Sunday School Class, the Woodmen of the World, and the Woodmen Circle.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. in the First Baptist Church with burial in Rose Hill Cemetery, Oakcrest Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Faubus and Fulbright Agree

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus says he opposes scattered charges that certain groups lean toward communism, but he thinks the Kennedy administration is too hard on anti-Communist seminars.

The governor said he thought military officers were being unduly restricted by the directive limiting military participation in seminars.

"Just because a man puts on a uniform doesn't mean he is stupid," Faubus said.

Faubus said he agreed in principle with Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., who said earlier this week that general charges of communism don't help the anti-Communist cause.

"Just because a person doesn't agree with you doesn't give you the right to accuse him of being an extreme rightist or a Communist," Faubus said.

He made the remarks during a news conference discussion of a question-and-answer session at a meeting of the State Chamber of Commerce — Associated Industries of Arkansas, Inc., Wednesday.

2 Sisters Die in Crash at DeQueen

DE QUEEN, Ark. (AP)—Two sisters have died of injuries suffered when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into a rock bank on U.S. Highway 71 seven miles north of here Wednesday night. Mrs. C. H. Herndon, 64, of Nashville, died Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Xercie Springfield, 62, of El Dorado, had died earlier Thursday. Herndon, 66, who was driving, was injured seriously and was hospitalized here.

416 'Shiners' Taken in Georgia

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Georgia revenue agents during October arrested 416 persons and seized 285 stills, one mule, one wheelbarrow, a wagon—and a gas pump.

In reporting the unusual haul Thursday Revenue Commissioner Dixon Oxford said: "I don't know why they picked up that gas pump. Moonshiners must have been using it around some still."

California Fire Near Extinction

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A hundred men, hollow-eyed and foot-sore, patrolled still-smoking canyons today, the final stage of a five-day fire disaster in the Santa Monica Mountains.

They kept dousing flareups throughout the night, hoping to avoid a renewal of Southern California's worst fire outbreak.

They finally controlled the 4,000-acre blaze in Topanga Canyon Thursday night but were still plagued by "hot spots"—sparks flying out of smoldering stumps and flaring into flames. The 5,750-acre fire in nearby Bel-Air was controlled Wednesday night.

Official estimates of damage remained unchanged: 436 homes destroyed; property losses that may exceed $20 million; 14,150 acres of vital watershed ruined.

There have been no deaths reported. About 150 firemen have been injured, none seriously. Los Angeles County has been declared a disaster area by Gov. Edmund G. Brown, who is seeking federal aid.

Boy and Dynamite Are Flagged Down

PALERMO, Sicily (AP)—Down the main street in nearby Bagheria Thursday came an 18-year-old boy nonchalantly holding a lighted stick of dynamite, its fuse sputtering.

A policeman grabbed it away, removed the fuse and began a search. Twelve more sticks and a detonator were found behind a ditch. The police are trying to find out where it came from.

U. S. Rocket Blast Kills Monkey Pilot

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A tiny monkey named Goliath died in the flaming explosion of an Atlas missile high over the Cape today.

Officials reported 20 minutes after the launching there was no chance that the small passenger had withstood the great explosion. His space capsule, tucked in the Atlas nose cone, had no escape mechanism.

The Air Force reported the range safety officer destroyed the missile when it became erratic in flight. Technicians began studying tapes of radio information relayed from the missile in an effort to learn what went wrong.

The missile was an advanced Atlas C model, this nation's most powerful military rocket. The earlier, more reliable Atlas D series will be used in the U.S. man-in-space program. A D Atlas is scheduled to boost a chimpanzee into orbit from the Cape next week and a man on an orbital flight hopefully by the end of the year.

If successful, the Atlas today would have covered the 5,000 miles in about 25 minutes.

Two aircraft and a ship waited in the planned impact area to attempt recovery of the 12-foot-tall cone after it made a blazing dive back through the heat barrier of the earth's atmosphere from an altitude of 650 miles.

The test was another aimed at perfecting means of keeping man aloft in space flight. Tucked in other compartments in the experiment-loaded cone were fruit flies in various stages of life, insect eggs, bacteria and other biological specimens. These were to be studied for radiation and other effects.

The furry little monkey, only six inches high and with a long tail, was not restrained by straps or other devices so that scientists could more readily learn his reaction to the stresses of rocket flight, especially the weird state of weightlessness. The monkey was trained to sip water from a rubber nipple when a light flashed on at intervals during the flight. Goliath, a native of the Amazon jungle of South America, was in an aluminum cylinder one foot tall and one foot in diameter. To protect him from possible injury during the pulse-pounding trip, the sides were padded with a plastic foam.

A nylon net stretched over one side of the circular wall to give the animal something to hang on to. To one side of the net was the nipple, attached to a small canister of water.

3 Die From Fumes of Car Engine

HUGHES, Ark. (AP)—Coroner Walter Stevens has ruled three Michigan men died of carbon monoxide poisoning as they slept in a parked car near here Wednesday night.

The dead were identified as Oscar Schwalm, 35, and Merrill Thomas Nitcher, 35, of Flint, Mich., and Fred Irving Schwalm, 41, of Millington, Mich. The Schwalm men were brothers.

Hughes police found the bodies Thursday in the car on state highway 149 one mile west of here. The ignition key was on and the heater fan was running. The men were traveling from Michigan to California with two men and their children, who spent the night with relatives in Hughes. They were identified as Mrs. Nitcher and her son, Johnny, 5, and Mrs. Daisy Crump and her son, Johnny, 9.

Red Bomb Very Dirty, Says Jap
TOKYO (AP) — A Japanese scientist today said the 30-megaton superbomb the Russians exploded Oct. 23 was a "very dirty" bomb, similar to those tested by the United States and Russia in 1953.
Dr. Yasuo Miyake, of the Meteorological Research Institute, told a meeting of the Meteorological Society fallout from the 50-megaton-plus bomb exploded Oct. 30 now is being analyzed.
Miyake said that if the 30-megaton contained the elements he thinks it did, "there is a great amount of ashes of death encircling the globe in the stratosphere"

Racial Test for Juries Cancelled

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A damage suit which threatened to become a test of Pulaski Circuit Court's practice of excluding Negroes from juries in its civil divisions has been settled out of court.

The suit was filed by the Rev. and Mrs. Morris Brunson, North Little Rock Negroes, seeking $23,450 damages from American National Bank of North Little Rock for injuries Mrs. Brunson allegedly suffered when she fell in the bank on May 29, 1960.

Thad D. Williams, attorney for the Brunsons, had filed a motion asking that the jury panel be quashed because no Negroes were on it. Williams asked that racially mixed juries be seated to try suits brought by Negro plaintiffs.

Williams and Winslow Drummond, attorney for the bank, announced the settlement Wednesday. Neither would disclose the amount paid the Brunsons.

Negroes traditionally have been excluded from juries in the two civil divisions of Pulaski Circuit Court. Negroes serve on juries in the criminal division.

FHA Install New Officers

Forty-five new members were initiated into the Hope Chapter of Future Homemakers of America at the home of cottage at the meeting Tuesday. The president, Janice Bailey, called the meeting to order. The invocation was led by Chris Anderson.

The initiates were instructed by the president on responsibilities to their chapter, their homes and their community. Candles were lit by second and third year members to symbolize each purpose as they repeated the eight purposes. The candles were on a table covered with a white cloth, centered with an arrangement of red roses, the club's flower.

Melba Cathoun led the initiates in repeating the FHA creed, followed by Susan White explaining the meaning of the emblem. Red and white ribbons were pinned on each new member to wear the rest of the week.

The newly elected officers received instructions on their duties and responsibilities as they were initiated and congratulated by the president.

New officers are: Karen Shagard, vice president; Millie Flowers, treasurer; Vickie Bruce, historian; Linda Stewart, parliamentarian; Peggy Hampton, photographer; Sherry Burke and Linda Gibson, reporters; Cherry Case, song leader.

Mississippi Top Engineer Turns 100

CARUTHERSVILLE, Mo. (AP) — Sterling P. Reynolds, known here as "the greatest engineer on the Mississippi," was 100 years old today.

Still active as chief engineer of the St. Francis Levee District, president of the Little River Drainage District and member of the Tennessee - Missouri River Bridge Commission, Reynolds had a busy schedule lined up.

He was honored by the levee district, which he has served for 62 years, and by citizens of Caruthersville, where a park bears his name.

Reynolds, who goes to the office every day, says he owes his long life "mostly to behaving myself and working hard."

Reynolds lives here with a daughter. He is a widower. Reynolds came to southeast Missouri on a timber survey in 1895. He recognized the potential of the Bootheel, then mostly swamp.

The Mississippi levee from New Madrid, Mo., to the Arkansas state line was under construction. But Reynolds realized the levee would not permit drainage of the swamps or diversion of the overflow from the St. Francis River. Reynolds' idea, now a fact, was to build a series of drainage ditches and dam the St. Francis. As a result, the Bootheel today is one of the nation's finest cotton-producing areas.

He helped plot Caruthersville and Blytheville, Ark., and ran surveys for a shortline railroad between the two cities. The line now is part of the Frisco system.

He has been chief engineer of the St. Francis levee district since 1900 and is the only surviving member of the Little River Drainage District formed in 1907.

Murder Count in Death of Negro

MOUNT IDA, Ark. (AP) — Prosecutor David Whittington said Wednesday a first degree murder charge will be filed against Mrs. Elnora Scott in the slaying death of Beve Hill, 55, who was slain at his home near Caddo Gap Tuesday. Sheriff Ralph Godhebert said Hill's wife and the Scott woman each accused the other of the slaying. The Hills and Mrs. Scott are Negroes.

The Audubon Society is launching a nation-wide, five-year survey of the bald eagle's nesting and migrating habits.

Defends Her Rejection of 'Bad Play'

SAYREVILLE, N.J. (AP) — A principal with a principle doesn't think she did the wrong thing by bustling her 146 teen-age charges from a Washington theater when she thought the play got too sexy in the first act.

Margaret Walsh, principal of Sayreville High School, said she had ordered the exit Monday night at the opening of David Merrick's production, "Sunday in New York," because, "I don't believe in misrepresentation of goodness."

Miss Walsh denied Merrick's charge that her action had almost caused a panic in the theater.

"If there was a near panic it was when two men and a woman from the theater staff screamed at me when I was quietly lining the children up outside the theater so they would not be in the way of passers-by after we left," she said.

Miss Walsh said the theater officials had shouted at her, "Yes, line them up and shoot them." She said they also had threatened to sue her.

She said she had reserved the tickets for her group, which was on a two-day tour of the nation's capital.

"The least they could have done is told me it was not suitable for teen-agers," she said.

Merrick said Miss Walsh didn't give the play a chance and that it is "probably one of the most moral plays I know." He said the comedy is about sex but at the final curtain the heroine is "moral, chaste and married."

L. R. General to the Pentagon

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Brig. Gen. John S. Samuel, commander of the 825th Air Division at the Little Rock Air Base since 1959, has been reassigned to the Pentagon, effective Nov. 20. The Air Force said Samuel will be assistant to the deputy chief of staff for personnel at Air Force headquarters. No successor was named.

A Love That Never Died

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My ex-husband and I are still in love with one another. And we shall always be. It was love at first sight when we met many years ago. Being very young we couldn't cope with the responsibilities of marriage. Due to misunderstanding on both sides we messed our lives up so completely that the only answer seemed divorce. We both married a second time and each had four children. Five years later we met again by chance, on the street. He looked at me I at him and knew that our love was stronger than ever. But all we said, was "Hello," "Goodbye" and passed on.

I divorced my second husband, got a job and am supporting myself and my children, purposely moving to a part of town where I would not be likely to see my first husband again.

Last week he found me. Would I, he asked, go back to him if he and his second wife divorced? I said no. His place was with the wife who had borne him children and his duty was to help rear them. He left, knowing we could find true happiness in being together.

We both go to church and want to do what is right. But the strain is telling on us. I pray and truly believe that God will guide me. Did I do right in sending away the one man I love in all this world?

Mixed-Up Wife.

Dear Mixed-Up Wife: Your love would be less than great if you did not stand by your decision. But, even if your first husband were free I doubt that you should remarry, certainly not until you have thought this through and had the opportunity to become reacquainted. I never fully, he has changed and so have you. Go easy. Warmth over love can be a cold dish.

Dear Helen: My 21-year-old brother has been going steady for two years with my best friend. I was surprised to see her put up with his bad temper so long. Now I hear he's dating other girls behind her back. Sooner or later she'll hear about it too. Meanwhile she's the patient Griselda. What's even worse, he's drinking! Shall I stay out of this or warn her? —Undecided

Dear Undecided: Mind your own business. You'll get no thanks for carrying the bad news. It is the height of wisdom to keep your own counsel unless asked for advice, especially where an ill-tempered brother is involved. And don't discuss the situation with others. It could boomerang.

Dear Helen: I am a Jewish girl of 16 in love with a Catholic boy of 18. His mother doesn't want him to see me any more. I'm proud of my faith as he is of his. Is it wrong for a Catholic to love a Jew? If so, why did the Lord let it happen? I must stop or I'll start crying, then nothing will make sense. —Still in Love.

Dear Still in Love: There is nothing wrong in any two people falling in love, no matter what their faith. The one requisite is sincerity of purpose. I have known many Jewish - Catholic marriages, all happy. A classic example on the stage was "Abie's Irish Rose." Send a paperback copy to the boy friend's mother.

Schayes to Strive for 20,000

By GEORGE ESPER
PHILADELPHIA (AP) - "To like to reach 20,000 points and then maybe I think I might retire."

It was Dolph Schayes talking. Schayes, the all-time scoring leader in the National Basketball Association, Thursday night had tied the mark of 682 consecutive games played as he scored 13 points in a disappointing 151-108 loss to the Philadelphia Warriors.

Someone wanted to know what Schayes next goal would be. His answer of 20,000 points was quick but he doubted if he could accomplish the feat this year since he now has only 17,823 and averages from 1,500 to 1,800 a year. That would mean another season after this one.

"I'd like to play one more year after this," said the former New York University star who, at 33, is in his 13th season in the NBA. "I feel good," he added, "although I'm not producing as well as I'd like to. But I'll get going and so will the team."

Schayes, who has often been critical of the "Warriors" Will Chamberlain, said he thought the 7-foot-1 Philadelphia center in 7 or 8 years would surpass him as the all-time leading scorer at the rate he has been going.

Chapter XXXV

Beecher walked beside him to the door. The policeman moved with the confident step of an infantry cadet, his shoulders straight and level, and his legs swinging to the beat of a march. He pulled open the door and bowed to Beecher. "If you please."

Beecher smiled. He swept an arm toward the door with a formal flourish. "After you, I insist," he said, and winked quickly at him.

Don Julio raised an eyebrow. Then he shrugged. "Very well." When he had gone a few steps down the pathway leading to the gates of the villa, Beecher turned in the door and looked back at Don Willie.

"I like things tidy," he said, smiling pleasantly. "You used your B-26 to try to kill Laura and Lynch, didn't you? You sent them off with a handshake, I imagine, then took the plane up and banked around to knock them off the road. Am I right? It's a small point, but, as I say, I'm a tidy man."

Don Willie stood with his back to the fireplace. The color was leaving his face, and his flesh seemed to be shrinking, plump cheeks sagging against the bones of his skull and drawing deep creases beside his nose and mouth. "Get out," he said hoarsely. "You talk like a madman."

Beecher nodded thoughtfully. "I'm wondering how you'd do it. The revolver in the study is traditional, isn't it? With a last glass of brandy and the dress uniform with full ribbons and decorations. The Imperial German officers liked that. But the Nazis favored cyanide. Of course, civilians find the razor in a warm bath pretty efficient. You might think about it."

Don Willie raised his head until the muscles in his throat stood out painfully; his eyes rolled like those of a maddened stallion. "I will not die," he said, and his voice sounded as if it might be ripping out the insides of his throat.

They crossed the lighted but empty plaza a moment or so later, and entered Don Julio's war office. Don Julio spoke quietly to Jorge, who nodded and hurried from the room. Then the policeman removed his stiff, peaked cap and sat down behind his desk. "Please," he said then, and nodded to a chair.

"Thanks," Beecher said, but instead of sitting he turned and walked to the window. Lighting a cigarette, he stared into the dark tunnel of the street which he and the policeman had just walked through: it was possible to imagine the silence of the little

Camden Ends Junior String at 20 Games

By VINCE FOSTER

One point spoiled an otherwise undefeated season and Homecoming game, as the Camden Panthers edged out the Hope Bobkittens 13-12 Thursday night at Hammond Stadium. Dry eyes were few last night, since Billy Mitchell's Kittens took the first six games—despite odds, and then with two first team halfbacks missing, they were taken in the final game of the season. Hope had won 26 straight.

Camden drew first blood as they drove 30 yards to the Hope 3, with Reynolds carrying the final yardage and Jack Jordan made the all important extra point to put Camden out front 7-0.

The Kittens took the kickoff, lost a few yards, then QB Buddy Jordan found HB Jerry Waller open, and he raced all the way on a pass play covering 82 yards. The PAT was stopped, and the Kittens trailed 7-6 at halftime.

The Hope and Camden Junior Bands performed at halftime in marching routines.

The Kittens took the kickoff and quickly marched 72 yards to the Camden 11, where QB Jordan twisted his way beautifully behind fine blocking for the TD. The PAT again failed and Hope enjoyed a short lived 12-7 lead.

After a 44 yard scamper by Reynolds, King carried it four yards for the Camden clinching TD.

But the action didn't stop here. Hope moved to their own 45, where they lost the ball on an interception. The Kittens defense later stiffened on the Hope 9 and took over on downs. The Kittens couldn't move and punted with time running out in the game.

But with 40 seconds remaining in the game, the Kittens recovered a Camden fumble on the Hope 48, bringing the crowd to their feet, but four incomplete passes left them stranded at the buzzer.

Johnny Samuels led Hope in rushing with 28 yards, followed by Waller with 16. McNatt with 15, and Jordan 8. Although there were actually no real standouts for the Kittens in this hard fought game, Jimmy Johnson, Virgil McNatt, Floyd Sprague and Harry Ray McMahon played very good defensive football. Paul Guerin, Louis Prather, Bobo Ball, Dick Willis, Tommy Still, Buddy Jordan, Charlie Beard, Jerry Waller and Johnny Samuels completed this fine Bobkitten first team.

These players, as well as Coach Mitchell, should be complimented on a fine season ending with a 7-1 record. Through such fine coaching and teamwork, Hope is building one of the finest football squads in Bobcat history, and it leaves us much to look forward to in future football seasons.

Montreal on Top Hockey League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The hot hand of Claude Provost has put the Montreal Canadiens back in their accustomed spot — alone atop the National Hockey League standings.

Provost scored the first three-goal hat trick of his NHL career Thursday night, leading the Canadiens to a 5-2 rout of Toronto. Detroit edged Boston 2-1 in the other game.

The Montreal victory, its first in five games, pulled the Canadiens out of a tie with idle New York.

The three goals by Provost — one in each period—regained for him the league scoring lead. The swift right wing now has 13 goals. His 23 points leads New York's Andy Bathgate by two.

Norm Ullman fired from point-blank range with 54 seconds left to give Detroit a comeback victory over the Bruins. Johnny Bucyk got Boston off to a 1-0 lead in the second period, but Alex Delvecchio matched it less than two minutes later. Gordie Howe assisted on both Detroit goals.

Shoats vs. Wichita in Game Today

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas freshman Shoats, who promise the parent Razorbacks a bumper crop of new talent, put their 3-0 record on the line against the twice beaten Wichita freshmen here today.

Wichita lost 16-6 to North Texas State's freshmen, a team the Shoats beat 26-0.

The Shoats were expected to be a big drawing card here this year since their sparkplugs are the same two backs who ramrodded Fort Smith High School last year. They're quarterback Garland Ridenour, who leads the team in rushing and scoring, and fullback Bob Reynolds.

Ridenour has gained 111 yards on 30 carries and has scored 18 points. He has hit on two passes for 44 yards. Reynolds has gained 58 yards in 27 carries.

Wichita is 1-2 for the season. The Shoats are tied with Rice for the Southwest Conference freshman lead. There is no formal race.

Hogs-Rice Game to Be a Toss-Up

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Arkansas and Rice meet here Saturday afternoon in a tossup football game. The winner will retain a shot at the Southwest Conference championship and will be top contender for a Bluebonnet Bowl bid.

Both teams are 2-1 in SWC competition. Arkansas beat Texas A&M 15-9 last week while Rice was slashing Texas Tech 42-7. Rice still must play unbeaten Texas.

Coach Frank Broyles pronounced his Razorbacks in good shape for the game. Halfback Lance Albritton apparently has recovered from an ankle injury and end Tim Langston will be back in action, although he may not start.

The Razorback time table called for the Hogs to leave Fayetteville at 1 p.m. today by plane and work out in the stadium after arriving here. They will spend the night in a motel.

Game time is 2 p.m. Rice was a one-touchdown favorite in some sections.

The Owls' center Dan Malin and tackle John Cornett probably will not see action because of injuries. Rice is a little bigger, but Arkansas is a bit quicker. Broyles says the teams compare favorably on offense and defense.

The Owls have a good passing combination in quarterback Randy Kerbow and Billy Cox and end Johnny Burrell. The rest of the starting halfback includes halfbacks Jerry Candler and Butch Blume, who does the placekicking, and fullback Roland Jackson.

Arkansas will counter with its own one-two quarterback combination of George McKinney and Billy Moore.

Arkansas has won the last two games between the two by a total of seven points—14-10 in 1959 and 3-0 last year.

Bantam Title Go Set for 'Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A world bantamweight championship boxing match is planned for San Francisco next Feb. 22 with Eder Jofre of Brazil defending against one of three challengers.

George Parnassus of Los Angeles and Lou Thomas of San Francisco announced plans for the fight Thursday.

Parnassus said Jofre's manager, Abraham Ketznelson, had agreed to a title bout. The foe would be Herman Marquez of Stockton, the California champion, Ignacio Pina or Jose Medel, both of Mexico.

Medel is the No. 2 ranking contender and Pina No. 5.

Hope Star SPORTS

Summerall, Is Giants' Ace Sunday

By JACK CLARY Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Pat Summerall, the New York Giants' golden-toed place-kicker, realizes that he may wind up being the difference this Sunday when the Philadelphia Eagles come to Yankee Stadium for the crucial Eastern Conference game against the Giants.

Summerall, a boyish-looking 10-year National Football League veteran, currently holds the consecutive extra points string, 107 without a miss, for active NFL players. Since coming to the Giants from the Cardinals in 1958, he has missed only two.

"Oh sure, I'm conscious of it (the streak)," he said today. "I don't know how many I have to go to break the record (50 to break George Blanda's mark of 156 with the Bears), but it doesn't bother me too much."

Summerall, who has booted 24 extra points so far this year, also takes care of the field goals. It is in this department, particularly, that he may mean the difference against a tough defensive team like the Eagles.

He's already made nine of 24 this year, his longest being a pair of 44-yard drives, both coming in losing efforts, against St. Louis and Dallas in Yankee Stadium. A 19-yarder against Pittsburgh proved to be the difference in a 17-14 victory, as did one of 28 yards in a 24-21 win over Washington.

"I try to kick all my field goals the same way," he said. "When I'm in close, I'll try and scoop the ball a little more and get it in the air quicker. A good kicker will make nine of 10 from 30 yards or less, and can be fairly accurate from 35 to 38 yards out."

The inside secret to being a good place-kicker, he says is to "get a man who knows how to hold the ball. I've never had a bad hold from Charley (Conerly)."

In other NFL games Sunday, Baltimore is at Minnesota, Cleveland at Washington, Dallas at Pittsburgh, Detroit at St. Louis, Green Bay at Chicago and San Francisco at Los Angeles.

Nicklaus Is Best Since Robt. Jones

By DAVE HARRISON

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Amateur golfers have given a sigh of relief, but the professionals of the game are casting a wary eye at a newcomer to their ranks—Jack Nicklaus, the most talked about amateur since Bobby Jones.

The Ohio State University senior, 21, who has won just about every amateur title around, including the National Amateur in 1959 and 1961, announced Wednesday that he is entering the play-for-pay field.

"I just decided I wanted to play golf," the stocky blond said. "And I owe it to my family to give them the best possible living I can."

"I started thinking seriously about the professional game just before the Walker Cup matches this year. I didn't have any school work or job to worry about. I just played golf. Then after the cup, I spent two weeks getting ready for the U. S. Amateur and my game really started getting good."

Nicklaus, who started swinging golf clubs when he was only 10, plans to drop out of school at the end of the autumn quarter—in mid-December.

"I hope to start my professional career in the Bing Crosby Invitational at Pebble Beach (Jan. 18-21)," Nicklaus said. "I finished my amateur career on that course and I'd like to start my professional one there."

The finish was his triumph in the U. S. Amateur.

Bobby Lisa Tops College Rushers

NEW YORK (AP) — Halfback Bobby Lisa of St. Mary's (Kan.) most consistent rusher in small college football this season, stands the best chance of any NCAA statistical leader to win a championship.

Lisa, with 1,032 rushing yards in eight games, has a 111-yard lead over John Knight of Valparaiso (Ind.). Each has one game to play. Lisa's total yardage is the smallest for any 8-game leader since 1956, but his lead at this stage is the largest in five years.

His strongest threat appears to come from last year's rushing champion, Joe Iacone of West Chester, (Pa.) State, who jumped into sixth place this week with 820 yards and has two games to play.

Other leaders in the small college statistics released today by the NCAA Service Bureau are Tom Gryzinski, Defiance, Ohio, quarterback, in total offense, 1,454 yards, and passing, 103 completions; Marvusaumhower, Defiance, pass received 49 for 616 yards; John Nachtsheim, Minnesota-Duluth, scoring, 122 points; and Grover Perkins, Southern University, punting, 48.4 yards average.

The first coins minted in the New World were struck at a mint established in Mexico City in the 1530s. The inscription "plus ultra," further beyond, and the Pillars of Hercules, representing the gate to the New World, appear on the coins.

4 Gridiron Greats Face Saturday

By JACK CLARY Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas, the nation's top-ranked college football team, Minnesota, Michigan State and Georgia Tech all are watching their steps this weekend.

These are the top teams who are most in danger of losing lofty standing as the weekend schedule suddenly switches from its fever-pitch of a week ago to something closely resembling sanity.

Even tonight's schedule is interesting, though not power-packed. Texas Christian goes to the West Coast to battle Big Five leader UCLA, while Detroit, minus national offense leader Jerry Gross, plays a good Villanova team and Furman of the Southern Conference hosts East Carolina.

All eyes will be on Texas to see if the Longhorns can stand the gaff, after being named No. 1 in the latest Associated Press poll. And they'll get a good test from Baylor, whose fine backs still are hobbling a bit from a rash of early-season injuries.

The Longhorns, leading the Southwest Conference with a 4-0 mark, and 7-0 over-all, are the nation's offense leaders. The Longhorns' defense, ranked seventh with an average yield of 168.7, will have to cope with halfback Ronnie Bull of the Bears (3-3).

Minnesota (No. 5), off its thrills, losing 13-0 upset of then top-ranked Michigan State last week, now runs into Iowa, which has lost two in a row. The Gophers, tied for the Big Ten lead with third-ranked Ohio State (4-0), will have to cope with Iowa's speed and passing that has averaged 349 yards a game, ranking eighth in total offense. The game will be televised regionally (ABC-TV, 2:15 p.m., Eastern Standard Time).

Michigan State, ranked sixth after its loss to the Gophers, has another toughie in upset-minded Purdue. The Boilermakers' offense, after its loss to the Gophers, has another toughie in upset-minded Purdue. The Boilermakers' offense, after its loss to the Gophers, has another toughie in upset-minded Purdue.

Iowa two weeks ago and are 2-1 in the Big Ten. The Spartans, with an offense that has averaged 331 yards a game, are 3-1, and still in the race.

Ohio State has a relatively easy task against Indiana, in another Big Ten game. The Buckeyes (No. 3), led by Bob Ferguson's charging ground attacks, are 5-0-1 overall, with the All-America fullback having gained 636 yards rushing so far.

Georgia Tech, one of four Southeastern schools in the top ten, has the toughest assignment. The ninth-ranked Engineers meet SEC member Tennessee, with Tech just a step behind the leaders with a 3-1 mark.

Alabama, ranked second and leading the conference with 5-0, plays Richmond and is heavily favored while fourth-ranked Louisiana State, which ended Mississippi's dreams a week ago, is expected to have a bit of trouble from North Carolina, co-leader in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Mississippi (No. 7), plays Little Chattanooga.

Colorado, ranked eighth and first in the Big Eight, pits its 7-0 record against Utah of the Skyline, while Missouri (No. 10), also of the Big Eight plays Oklahoma, only 1-5 so far, in a conference game.

Stars Not Complaining of Draft

FORT LEWIS, Wash. (AP)—The athletes Uncle Sam pulled into the Army because of the Berlin crisis aren't yelling "foul!"

"It's one of the things you have to accept as part of the times," said Pvt. Ray Nitschke, hard-muscled linebacker of the Green Bay Packers.

"I took an oath of obligation when I joined the reserves and never considered applying for deferment," Nitschke added.

"This," said Pvt. Tony Kubek, star shortstop of the world champion New York Yankees, "is a much bigger thing than any baseball game."

Three other prominent soldier-athletes of the 32nd Red Arrow Infantry Division expressed similar sentiment, said Lt. Robert Bjorklund, public information officer.

They are Pvs. Bob Taylor, Milwaukee Braves outfielder; George Thomas, Los Angeles Angels outfielder; and Doug Mayberry, Minneapolis Vikings fullback.

Boyd Dowler, Green Bay halfback, is expected to join the division next week. The unit will receive intensive training for battle readiness in the coming weeks.

None is overjoyed with the change in uniform, the interruption of career, the cut in wages. Each draws base pay of $95.00 per month. Most, if not all, are in the five-figure salary class as athletes.

"I didn't make much more when I was down in the minors," grinned Kubek, revealing a chipped tooth—his first Army souvenir. He got it playing touch football with his new buddies in Company A, Third Battle Group, 127th Infantry.

"The Army is not an easy thing to accept," Kubek added. "You can hardly blame anyone for feeling a little bitter."

Layne Suits Up After Layoff

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Quarterback Bobby Layne of the Pittsburgh Steelers isn't used to warming the bench.

But that's where the National Football League star will find himself—at least at the opening kickoff—when the Steelers meet the Dallas Cowboys at Forbes Field Sunday.

Layne, rarely a second stringer in his 14-year professional career, has been on the 30-day injury reserve list and will be in uniform for the first time in five weeks. In the meantime, his erstwhile substitute—Rudy Bukich—has led the rejuvenated Steelers to three wins in the last four games.

"Layne looks pretty good in practice," Coach Buddy Parker said at the Steelers' training ground Thursday. "But I'm going to start Bukich. He's been playing pretty good. Layne will probably play but it will actually depend on how the game goes."

Missed Putts Golf Story at Beaumont

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — The story of the opening round of the Beaumont Invitational Golf tournament was one of missed putts.

That is, for everyone except youthful Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill.

While Fairfield and his five-gutter par 66 Thursday represented a two-stroke advantage in a closely-hunged field, his closest pursuers complained of short putts that might have been.

Jay Hebert of Miami, Fla., for instance, was four inches short on a three-footer on No. 9, giving him a bogey. But the grizzled veteran from Louisiana will never forget No. 1, a par 4 hole with a minimum of troublesome hazard.

Hebert rifled a six-iron 15 feet from the pin to begin his bid. His first putt eased downhill six feet beyond the flag. His second putt was 14 inches short, and he missed a third stroke by a half-inch, finally holing out on his fourth effort.

Hebert scorched the back side with a four-under 31 to get his 68, leaving him tied with Bob Ryberg of Portland, Ore., and unknown Gene Coghill of Penfield, N.Y. They are Fairfield's main worries at the one-quarter mark.

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar period as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

	Minor Major	Minor Major
	A. M.	P. M.
Fri. . . .	6:50 12:40	7:20 1:10
Sat. . . .	7:40 1:30	8:15 2:00
Sun. . . .	8:30 2:20	9:05 2:50

The Mt. Washington Carriage Road, 100 years old this year, is the oldest toll road in the United States still in operation.
